Down with the Gold Gamblers. There are laws for the suppression of ommon gambling houses, which the police and the courts occasionally enforce. If the civil authorities have the power to shut up the places where fare and reniette lure men to ruin, why should not the same principle apply to the Gold Room, where not alone the fortures of the participants are staked, but where the peace and prosperity of the commonwealth are daily imperified? In the gambling "hell" as the place where games of bazzard are played is very justly termed, the weltare findividuals only is jeopardied. The risk PROMPT attention given to collections in East Tennessee, and Southwestern Va. is well defined. There are certain chance is in fayor of the "Bank," and the player es in favor of the "Bank," and the player stakes his own or somebody clses' money with his eyes open. No "respectable" gambling-house keeper nowadays resorts to marked eards or loaded dice, but, content with the percentage in his favor, "plays on the square," and, if he loses, his money with the same seeming indir-

A preeting of colored mon was held in Nashville, on Monday evening, to take into consideration the project of an exodus of the colored men from Nashville to the ADVERTISING MEDIUM West, A Mr. Carper, moved that a committe of nine be appointed to prepare for a convention of the colored people of Tenfor all the Real Estate that may be placed nessee, to consider the propriety of emiin the hands of the Company for SALE or grating to the West. After considerable disorder, the chairman put the motion, when some one grose and "ruled the chair out of order." but the question was final to addition to advertising, the JOURNAL put, when the aves and noes were so crow ded together that it was impossible to deeide, and the motion was finally lost by raising of the hands, Randall Brown then said : "I trust that not conduct themselves in such a manner as to cause the reporters to say we had a of pow wow. I did not wish to say so much have no roof-tree to cover them that they call their own. We have now some fifteen hundred colored men in this vicinity, and God alone knows, how they are supported now, and how they are to exist in the future. Let us go to some place where Persons having REAL ESTATE for sale | we can exercise our brain and muscle, and the gifts that God has given us to make us of wood and drawers of water? Let us take a place in society. I have a house and home, it is true, but I do not value it as one cent where the welfare of my colorare crowding to the West, and in a short time it will all be filled up, and then where in the name of God are you go?"
